- All contributions and income therefrom are unconditional, irrevocable and become the property of The Extra Credit Show™ board of directors. The Extra Credit Show™ Board of Directors has exclusive legal control over all assets donated.
- Federal and state laws do not permit The Extra Credit Show™ to guarantee or imply a guarantee that any individual or program will qualify for or receive assistance due to a donation made on their behalf.
- The ECS Awards Selection Committee works independently of all donors, applicants, and other members of the community. Only members of The Extra Credit Show™ board of directors, who are in good standing, have authority to direct the timing and amount of any award. Unauthorized individuals who attempt to influence the Committee or who demand disbursement privileges or require awards be made to certain individuals, schools, or programs will cause the applicant to be withdrawn from consideration for an award and all funds that are or may be associated with the applicant will revert to our Disaster Relief Fund. The ECS Awards Selection Committee has sole discretion over the selection of recipients and the disbursement of all awards. Decisions of the Committee and Board of Directors are final.
